Message from the Principal

Greetings!

The election of the Student Union had been completed two weeks ago, and the Student Union would be handed over soon. Everyone appreciates the members of the previous union who were dedicated to serve our students and became a bridge between students and the school.

Education nowadays focuses on authentic learning. We need to get familiar with the current affairs and know more about our society. The solid foundation of knowledge and theories are important for us to learn. It is also necessary to understand the perspectives and views of different stakeholders to fully understand and experience the benefits of different social topics. Teachers appreciate the serious attitude of the members of the Student Union. They are leading and serving roles in the campus. I hope that these opportunities will become valuable experiences for the students.

The new committee members of Home-school Association have been successfully elected, and the inauguration will be held tomorrow. We are grateful to have the members for their dedication in assisting the development of the school and providing support in various matters, such as reheating lunch boxes for students, supporting invigilation, and preparing for various activities. Parent volunteers support the school wholeheartedly and make Ma Ko Pan a warm family. I hope that parents will pay attention to the future activities of the Home-school Association with active participation and support.
